Alex,

Thank you for responding. You never responded to the Company's original letter sent months ago on April 25, 2025. We do not interpret your request for another week in good faith, and believe you have likely been coordinating with the Defendants. The company reserves its right to notify the Court of your failure to respond given the preliminary injunction hearing set for Wednesday, July 9, of which you have notice.

Once you have retained legal counsel, please send your legal counsel's contact information immediately, or have them contact me directly. I am available any time this week and over the holiday weekend at 646-469-3762 or at this email address.

As stated in the letter dated April 25, 2025 and our letter last week, you have a duty to preserve all communications and documents relevant to this matter, including but not limited to all call logs and texts with Defendants.

Best,
Margaret Allen

Hey Margaret,

I received your email regarding Case No. 1:25-cv-05219. I am currently in the process of securing legal representation to appropriately address the matter at hand. I respectfully request an additional week to finalize arrangements with an attorney so that I can respond appropriately and thoroughly.

Thank you for your understanding and patience. Please let me know if this extension can be accommodated.
